LETTER FROM GEN. MARSHALL.

EDITOR BULLETIN:--I am glad to know from your correspondent "Dai Nippon," when the jirikiasha of the Japanese first came into use.

If it was not until 1867, my not having heard of it in 1839 is easily accounted for.

He is in error, however, in quoting me as having said in my "talk"

that I had seen the jirikiasha in use in Honolulu. I never saw one anywhere, but hope they are less cumbersome vehicles than those I saw here in 1839, which I described as looking "like a child's wagon," but more clumsy.

J. F. B. MARSHALL.

Honolulu, Dec. 18, 1889.

POLICE COURT PROCEEDINGS.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 18.

Ah Kui and Ah Sui, and Isa, a Chinese woman, were all fined $50 with one hour's imprisonment for having opium unlawfully in possession.

Oscar Schussler was charged with assault and battery on his wife. The Court thought the parties were both to blame, and as Schussler declared his intention of quitting the country sentence was suspended.

Four drunks had each to pay $6.
